DECLASSIFIED

Sunday, March 2, 1952.

Dean Riddle had a special service at the American Pro Cathedral this morning in the nature of a farewell for us. Afterwards, we received with him the members of the congregation in the Parish House. It was a [redacted] generous thing for him to have done.

We went down to Versailles this afternoon, and took a walk in the park. It was a beautiful spring day.

To-night, Elsie and Bill Youngman, and Liz and Murray Forbes came to dine with us. We had [redacted] Château Lafitte 1906 , Château Cheval Blanc 1934, and Salon champagne.
